An outstanding evening of celebration, where your support continues way beyond the night

The Soldiering On Awards, now into their 10th year, span the entire Armed Forces Community, celebrating outstanding achievements and collaboration across the community and all those who support it. Awards recognition extends to individual endeavour, teams, charities, businesses and animal partners.

Becoming a Soldiering On Award-Winner is the start of a 12 month programme of engagement and support; with training, mentoring and coaching assistance provided to help Award-Winners take their amazing achievements to the next stage. Join us for an evening to celebrate the achievements of many deserving people and show your support to help empower their journeys even further.

Awards President General the Lord Dannatt GCB, CBE, MC, DL said "Soldiering On Awards has caught the imagination of everyone connected with our military. It is both an outstanding evening of recognition and breaks the mould in providing on-going support to help Award-Winners go from strength to strength"
